EDGE exchange scheme 2017-2018

The University of Liège (ULg), the University of Economics of Bratislava (EUBA) and Sciences Po in Paris are proud to announce the EDGE Exchange Scheme, a mobility grant scheme under the Environmental Diplomacy and Geopolitics (EDGE) project funded by the European Union. The scheme facilitates the exchange of undergraduate and graduate students between both universities during the academic years 2017-2018, 2018-2019 and 2019-2020. This information sheet contains all information regarding the exchanges during the academic year 2017-2018.

Duration

Students from ULg can apply to spend one semester at Science Po or EUBA, either the fall semester (August 2017- December 2017) or the spring semester (January 2018 – May 2018). Students from Science Po can apply to spend the full academic year at ULg or EUBA (September 2017- June 2018).

Grant

Students selected for the exchange scheme will receive a monthly allowance of €700.

Selection procedure

Two students per year from EUBA can spend a semester at Sciences Po or ULg. Two students per year from Sciences Po can spend a full academic year at EUBA or ULg. Two students per year from ULg can spend a semester at EUBA or Sciences Po.

Students who aspire to participate in the exchange scheme have to submit a CV and motivation letter – in English – by April 30, 2017. The motivation letter should elaborate on the student's background (if any) regarding environmental matters – either professional or academic – as well as the role the exchange scheme and its specific courses could play in the student's academic and professional development.

Applications should be sent to Ms. Ivana Dancáková (edge@euba.sk).

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon H2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No. 692413.
