CALL FOR PAPERS

The Journal of International Relations published by the Faculty of International Relations at the University of Economics in Bratislava, Slovakia invites authors to submit papers to its regular issues. We are the leading interdisciplinary journal in Central and Eastern Europe publishing articles on topics from the fields of international economics, international politics, international law, economic diplomacy and European studies.

Aims and scope:

The Journal of International Relations wishes to publish high-quality original scientific papers, discussions, surveys, short communications and book reviews from the field of international economic, political, legal and cultural relations, preferably in English.

The topics of published papers include, but are not limited to:

- history of international economic relations
- international trade
- international investment
- international migration
- current international economic issues
- current international political issues
- analysis of current and past conflicts
- intercultural relations
- international trade law
- public international law

Annual deadlines to submit papers:

Deadlines to submit papers are March 15th, June 15th, September 15th and December 15th of each year. All papers will be prescreened by the managing editor to verify their scientific quality and their accordance with the journal's aims and scope. In the month following the deadline all suitable papers will undergo double-blind peer-review process. The editorial team strives to publish all successful papers within 6 months of the submission deadline, with the majority being published 3 months after the deadline.

The publication process is fast, free and adheres to the strictest academic standards.
We are doing our best to increase the coverage and impact of the journal.
